1. Further reactions of the Urfahr Komendatura to the recent desertion of a Soviet senior lieutenant formerly stationed in Urfahr have been observed. Komendatura personnel have been obliged to submit a large number of written reports about the desertion.
2. Shortly after the desertion of the Soviet lieutenant, two other Soviet officers were taken into custody and returned to the USSR. Both had Austrian girl friends.
3. All Soviet personnel must report the identities of Austrians with whom they fraternize, and the Komendatura is attempting to uncover any unreported associations.
4. In addition, compulsory physical examinations for venereal disease have been instituted for officer and enlisted personnel.
